More to come from new program Chair Cathy Puccetti

From Soon-To-Be Ex-President Lois

In May I hand over the keys and good wishes to the new Presidents-- Nazee and Marcia. We will all support you in the coming months— right members???

I'd like to thank all you knitters for making this a good year for the Guild. I've learned a lot from all the show and tells. They pushed me into the sock world--and Christine - the yarn crawls were great fun.

It was a pleasure working with you all.

— Sincerely, Lois

Dunn. There was discussion about how officers might be more easily solicited in future. Marcia will email a suggestion of a possible way to handle this.

Christine volunteered to host her annual pot luck in May. The tentative date is May 21. Nazee will request votes on some details via the Yahoo group when Christine confirms the date.

Nazee previously emailed the Yahoo group about a new yarn shop in Berkeley, A Verb for Keeping Warm.

A possible East Bay yarn crawl was discussed.

The Marin Museum of Contemporary Art on Hamilton has a showing by five recent MFAs. One artist used crochet in her pieces in a very unusual way.

Oakland's first Annual Fiber Festival will be held in June. Nazee will look into the cost of a booth for the guild.

Leona met a woman with MS, Rhonda Greco, who makes children's clothes for charity out of old pillow-

RenGreco@hotmail.com, or (707) 938-7485.

Beth Saucier recently had surgery. Leona will send a card on behalf of the Guild.

The meeting concluded with show and tell. Ann Van Arnum won the raffle.

Note: The May guild meeting will be held in a downstairs room due to use of the usual meeting room for a wedding.
